

Let's listen to children's voices!

To eliminate the worst forms of child labour in Southeast Asia

“

Meet Tangol

our avatar from the Philippines

Tangol is a 13-year-old boy who lives in poverty with his grandma and uncle. One day, he was told to deliver a package, not knowing it was illegal. He was happy at first because he needed money. But later, he realised and felt scared. Tangol didn't choose this kind of life.

Watch Tangol's story

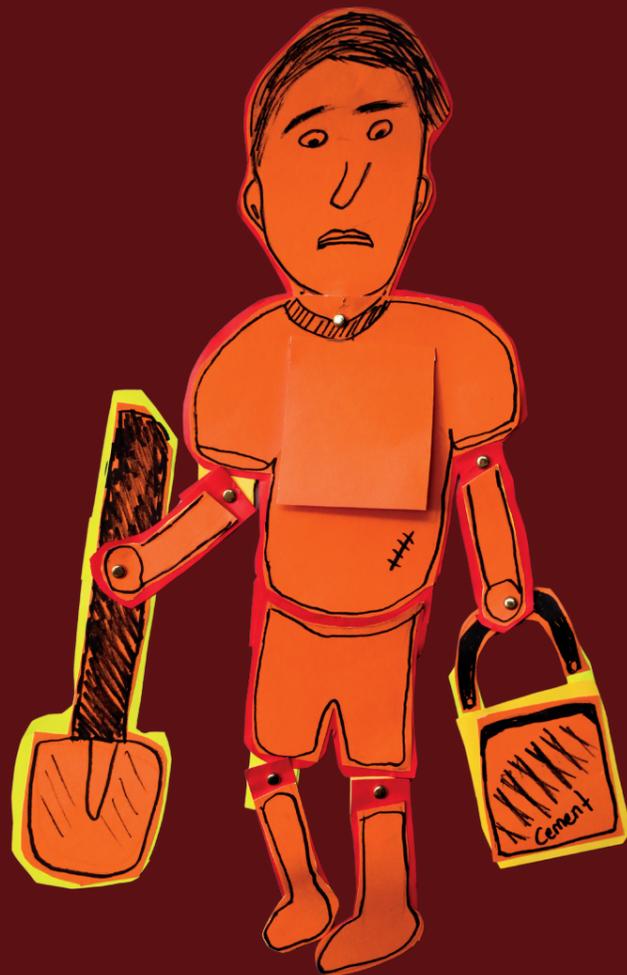

We want  schools to create safe spaces where children can seek mental and psychological support, especially those at risk of dropping out.”

My voice can make a difference to Tangol!

Let's listen to children's voices!

To eliminate the worst forms of child labour in Southeast Asia

“

Meet Thy

our avatar from Cambodia

Thy is a 13-year-old boy. He works as a construction worker because his family is in debt.

He wishes to continue studying but because his family is in debt, he can't.

Watch Thy's story

We want  the government to collaborate with non-governmental organisations and businesses to give vocational and livelihood training for youth and parents. ”

My voice can make a difference to Thy!

Let's listen to children's voices!

To eliminate the worst forms of child labour in Southeast Asia

“

Meet Jane

our avatar from Laos

Jane is 11 years old. She doesn't have a family.

She got trafficked to Bangkok. She had to beg for money on the road.

 Watch Jane's story

We want  law enforcement to strictly investigate trafficking and child beggar gangs, and expand their capacity to address the problem.”

My voice can make a difference to Jane!

Let's listen to children's voices!

To eliminate the worst forms of child labour
in Southeast Asia

“

Meet Money

our avatar from Thailand

Her name is Money, a 13-year-old girl. Her dad passed away. She has a lot of debts in her family. Her mom forced her to sell her own inappropriate content. She wants to learn, and she wants to study, and she feels uncomfortable.

Watch Money's story

We want  the government to support welfare measures, such as providing financial assistance to families in need and educating them on child protection. ”

My voice can make a difference to Money!